CHARTER.

From the East of the Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.
M. E. John R. Bradford, G. Master.

TO ALL KNIGHTS TEMPLARS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

JOHN R. BRADFORD,
Grand Master.

JAMES HUTCHISON,
Dep. G. Master.

S. W. ROBINSON,
Grand Generalissimo.

WINSLOW LEWIS, JR.
Grand Capt. General.
And a seal.

Whereas, a Petition has been presented to us, signed by Ammi Burnham Young, Edward Afa Raymond, John J. Loring, Charles Whitlock Moore, Hamilton Willis, Albert H. Kelsey, William Eaton, Joshua Tucker, Simon W. Robinson, Gardner Greenleaf, Jonas Chickering, and Charles Robbins, KNIGHTS TEMPLARS, residing in and near the City of Boston, in the County of Suffolk, and State of Massachusetts, praying that a CHARTER may be granted to them, authorizing and empowering them to open and hold an Encampment of Knights Templars, in said City: And whereas, the said Petition was on the tenth day of October, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, duly submitted to, and considered by, our said Grand Encampment, in open Session; and it appearing that the rules and regulations in such case made and provided had been fully complied with, an order was passed, authorizing the prayer of the petitioners to be granted:

Now Know Ye, that we, the Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, reposing special confidence and trust in the fidelity, zeal, and Masonic skill of the petitioners aforesaid, and for the purpose of diffusing the benefits of the Order, and promoting the happiness of its members, do, by these Presents, constitute and establish the said Petitioners into an Encampment of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders, by the name of DE MOLAY ENCAMPMENT, with full and adequate powers to confer the several Degrees of Knights of the Red Cross,

Knights Templars, and Knights of Malta, upon such person or persons, possessing the requisite qualifications, as they may think proper; And wherefore, the said Petitioners have, by their own free and independent action, elected from themselves and their associates, the following Brethren to be the FIRST OFFICERS of said ENCAMPMENT, viz: SIR EDWARD A. RAYMOND, M. E. Grand Commander; JOHN J. LORING, Generalissimo; A. BURNHAM YOUNG, Captain General; CHARLES W. MOORE, Prelate; ALBERT H. KELSEY, Senior Warden: HAMILTON WILLIS, Junior Warden; WILLIAM EATON, Treasurer; THOMAS RESTIEAUX, Recorder; JOSHUA TUCKER, Sword Bearer; GARDNER GREENLEAF, Standard Bearer; CHARLES ROBBINS, Warden; OSGOOD EATON, 3d, JOHN C. ROBERTSON, 2d, WILLIAM PARKMAN, 1st, Captains of Guards; HENRY G. CLARK, Director of Music; JONAS CHICKERING, JOHN BIGELOW, WILLIAM WARD, JOHN P. OBER, J. LEANDER STARR, Committee of Finance; SIMON W. ROBINSON, G. WASHINGTON WARREN, JOSEPH W. WARD, JAMES PERKINS, EDWARD HENNESSY, Committee of Charity:

Therefore, We do hereby recognize the said Brethren as Officers and Members of said Encampment, with continuance of the aforesaid powers and privileges to them and their successors forever. Prohibited, nevertheless, That the said Officers and Members, and their successors in said Encampment, pay due respect to our Grand Encampment aforesaid, and to the Constitution and Edicts thereof, and in no way remove the Ancient Landmarks of our Order: otherwise this Charter, and all things herein contained, to be void and of no effect.

Given at the City of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, this Tenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and of our Order, seven hundred and thirty.

By order of the Grand Encampment of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Attest: GILBERT NURSE, Grand Recorder.

B Y E - L A W S .

ARTICLE I.

OF WHOM THE ENCAPMENT SHALL CONSIST.

SECTION I. The De Molay Encampment of Knights Templars, and the Appendant Orders, shall consist of a Grand Commander, Generalissimo, Captain General, Prelate, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer, Recorder, Sword Bearer, Standard Bearer, Warder, three Captains of Guards, Musical Director, Armorer and Sentinel, and as many Knights as the majority of the members may, from time to time, determine.

MEETINGS OF THE ENCAPMENT.

SECTION II. The Encampment shall assemble on the fourth Wednesday of each month, unless otherwise ordered by vote of the Encampment, and also upon such special occasions as may be ordered by the Encampment or the Grand Commander.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

SECTION III. The eleven first enumerated Officers shall be chosen annually, at the stated meeting in October, by written ballot. The others shall be appointed by the Grand Commander immediately after his installation.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

SECTION IV. The Officers shall be installed as soon as may be convenient, and shall hold their offices until their successors are installed.

VACANCIES IN OFFICES.

SECTION V. Should any elective office become vacant, from any cause whatever, such vacancy shall be filled at the first stated meeting after such occurrence, provided the usual notice shall have been given on the notification of said meeting. Any officer appointed by the Grand Commander who wilfully neglects his duties for three successive meetings, shall be considered as having relinquished his office, and a successor shall be appointed.

ARTICLE II.

GRAND COMMANDER.

SECTION I. It shall be the duty of the Grand Commander to convene regular and special Encampments, and preside, when present, at all such assemblies; to instruct the officers and members generally in the mysteries of the Order; to dispense justice, reward merit, encourage truth, and diffuse the sublime principles of universal benevolence.

GENERALISSIMO.

SECTION II. It shall be the duty of the Generalissimo to assist the Grand Commander in his various duties; to receive his orders on all occasions and see them duly executed; and, in the absence of the Grand Commander, to command the Encampment.

CAPTAIN-GENERAL.

SECTION III. It shall be the duty of the Captain-General to proclaim the orders of the Grand Commander; assist him in council, and to preside in the Encampment in the absence of the Commander and Generalissimo.

PRELATE.

SECTION IV. The Prelate shall perform the various duties incumbent on Chaplains, and such others as appertain to his office.

WARDENS.

SECTION V. The Wardens shall prepare the candidate, accompany him through the ceremonies, and introduce him into the Encampment.

TREASURER.

SECTION VI. The Treasurer shall receive the revenues from the Recorder, and pay all demands against the Encampment, when duly approved by the Standing Committee; he shall keep a just account of all moneys he receives and pays; exhibit the same when required, and deliver to his successor in office, within thirty days after the election, all the property of the Encampment remaining in his possession.

RECORDER.

SECTION VII. The Recorder shall issue notifications to the members of all meetings, specifying in WRITING the names, places of abode, and occupation of all candidates, and, when directed by the Grand Commander, the special business of the meeting; shall observe with attention the transactions of the Encampment, and keep a true record of the same; collect the revenue, and pay it to the Treasurer, at least once in three months; shall serve the chairmen of all committees with a copy of the vote by which they were appointed, and attend their sessions if required. At the annual meeting he shall exhibit a fair account of all moneys by him received and paid.

SWORD BEARER.

SECTION VIII. The Sword Bearer shall assist in protecting the banners of the Order; watch all signals from the Grand Commander, and see his orders duly executed.

STANDARD BEARER.

SECTION IX. The Standard Bearer shall display, support, and protect the banners of the Order.

WARDER.

SECTION X. The Warder shall see the Encampment duly guarded, and the Sentinels at their respective posts; shall communicate to the Grand Commander all petitions and requests for admission, and favors, and return his answers accordingly.

GUARDS.

SECTION XI. The Guards shall challenge with spirit, examine with caution, admonish with candor, relieve with alacrity, protect with fidelity, and defend with valor their respective posts.

MUSICAL DIRECTOR.

SECTION XII. The Musical Director shall have the exclusive control and direction of the Music.

ARMORER.

SECTION XIII. The Armorer shall have charge of all the furniture, regalia, and arms of the Encampment; see that they are kept in good order, and fit for use. At the annual election of Officers he shall make a return, in writing, to the Standing Committee, of every article in his department.

SENTINEL.

SECTION XIV. The Sentinel shall guard, with vigilance, the avenues to the asylum; give the alarm, when necessary, and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the Grand Commander.

ARTICLE III.

CANDIDATES FOR ORDERS.

SECTION I. Every candidate for the Orders shall make application in writing, enclosing the fee of fifty dollars, accompanied by a certificate from three Royal Arch Masons that he has regularly received the degree of Royal Arch Mason, and is of good moral character and respectability. He shall stand proposed from one meeting to another, not less than fourteen days intervening, (unless in case of emergency a dispensation be obtained,) and before a ballot shall be taken he shall satisfy a committee respecting his knowledge and proficiency in the preceding degrees. He must receive the unanimous vote of the members present, in order to be admitted. If he is not accepted, the fee shall be returned.

PROPOSING AND BALLOTTING FOR CANDIDATES.

SECTION II. The names of all candidates for the Orders shall be submitted to the Council; and be by them approved before they are proposed to the Encampment. The question, "Shall a committee be appointed?" upon such applicant, having been put, and decided in the affirmative, the committee shall be appointed, and through the Recorder immediately notified of their duty. They shall report in writing to the Grand Commander; but the names of this committee shall not be announced to the Encampment, nor shall the Recorder make a record of, or be at liberty to divulge them. The balloting shall be strictly secret. In case one black ball only is cast, a second balloting may be ordered, but a third shall not be allowed. When a candidate is rejected, no member shall question another as to his vote, declare his own, or complain of the result.

NO CLAIM TO MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION III. The fact of receiving the Orders in the Encampment shall confer no claim to be admitted to membership.

ARTICLE IV.

PROPOSITION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION I. Any member wishing to propose a candidate for membership, shall first communicate his name to the Council, who may, if they think proper, announce the name to the Encampment, (none but members being present,) and order a vote on the following question, viz. "Is it the pleasure of the Encampment that Sir A—— B—— be proposed for membership?" This vote shall be taken by ballot, and, if it is unanimously in the affirmative, the applicant may be proposed, and a committee appointed, in the same manner as is provided for candidates for the Orders, and not otherwise. If he is rejected no record shall be made of the result.

BALLOTING FOR MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION II. Candidates for membership shall be balloted for between the hours of eight and nine o'clock, P. M., at stated meetings only, after having been proposed one month, and their names being inserted on the notifications for the meeting at which the balloting takes place. The unanimous vote of the members present shall be necessary for their admission; and no one shall be entitled to the privileges of a member until he has signed the Bye-Laws and paid the admission fee. When the ballottings take place none but members shall be present.

ADMISSION OF HONORARY MEMBERS.

SECTION III. Knights Templars who have been eminently useful to the institution, or to this Encampment in particular, may be admitted Honorary Members, by being proposed and balloted for at the annual meeting, in the same manner as is provided for full membership; and said Honorary Members shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of members, but shall not be subject to quarterages or assessions.

FORFEITURE OF MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION IV. Any member (honorary members excepted) who absents himself for six successive regular meetings, or who neglects to pay his quarterages or assessments for one year, shall forfeit his membership, unless a satisfactory excuse be offered: PROVIDED ALSO, three months notice shall have been given by the Recorder to such delinquent.

NEGLECT TO SIGN BYE-LAWS.

SECTION V. Any Knight Templar who may be admitted a member, and who shall neglect to sign the Bye-Laws, or to pay the admission fee within three months after his admission, and notice thereof by the Recorder, must submit to the forms of being re-proposed, and again balloted for.

DISCHARGE FROM MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION VI. Should any member wilfully violate the principles of his profession, or reveal the confidential transactions of the Encampment to any person not a member, he may be discharged at any regular meeting by a majority of the members present; he having received at least ten days previous notice of such intention to discharge him.

ARTICLE V.

STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE ENCAMPMENT.

SECTION I. The Grand Commander, Generalissimo, and Captain General shall be a Standing Committee, whose duty it shall be to audit the accounts of the Treasurer and Recorder, and report at the annual meeting; to examine all bills against the Encampment, and, if approved, two at least of the committee shall sign them before payment by the Treasurer; they shall also examine and decide all excuses for breach of these Bye-Laws, and transact generally the financial affairs of the Encampment, unless it is otherwise specially ordered.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES AND THEIR EXPENSES.

SECTION II. All committees, except the Standing Committee, shall report their doings at the next meeting after their appointment. All necessary expenses of committees shall be defrayed by the Encampment.

ARTICLE VI.

ENCAMPMENT FUND.

SECTION I. From and after the first day of January, A. D. 1857, the sum of five dollars from the fee received of each successful applicant for the Orders of Knighthood, and the sum of two dollars from the fee received of each applicant for membership, and the sum of one dollar from the annual amount received of each member in quarterages, shall be set apart, and shall together form a fund to be designated the "Encampment Fund."

APPROPRIATION OF ENCAMPMENT FUND.

SECTION II. This fund shall be carefully and judiciously invested by the Treasurer, under the unanimous and written direction of the "Encampment Committee;" and the INCOME only thereof shall be appropriated for the relief of distressed members, their widows, and minor children, and for such other purposes as shall be designated by vote of the Encampment.

ADDITIONS TO THE FUND.

SECTION III. The unexpended income of this fund, together with all donations to it, and all appropriations made to the same by vote of this Encampment, shall be annually added to the principal.

PRINCIPAL OF THE FUND.

SECTION IV. No part of the income of this fund shall be appropriated to any purpose whatever, until the principal shall amount to two thousand five hundred dollars.

RATE OF INCREASE NOT TO BE DIMINISHED.

SECTION V. Until after the principal of this fund shall amount to two thousand five hundred dollars, it shall not be considered good knightly faith in the Encampment to diminish the rate of increase as established by the preceding sections of this article.

ENCAMPMENT COMMITTEE.

SECTION VI. At the annual meeting for the choice of Officers, there shall be chosen by ballot a committee of three, to be styled the "Encampment Committee," whose duty it shall be to direct the investment of the Encampment Fund, and to report their doings thereon, and the condition of the fund, at the succeeding annual meeting. The Treasurer shall not be eligible to election upon this committee.

FAILURE TO MAKE ANNUAL REPORT.

SECTION VII. A failure of the committee to make such annual report shall render them ineligible to re-election, except by the unanimous vote of the Encampment.

ARTICLE VII.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS. VISITORS.

SECTION I. No Sir Knight, who is not a member of some Encampment, shall be allowed to visit this Encampment more than twice, without the unanimous consent of the members present, to be ascertained by ballot.

ADMISSION TO THE RANKS.

SECTION II. No visitor or member shall be admitted into the ranks of the Encampment, except by special vote, unless his uniform and regalia shall conform to that which may be the adopted uniform and regalia of this Encampment.

UNIFORM AND REGALIA.

SECTION III. The personal dress of the Sir Knights, when on duty, on all formal or public occasions, shall be a black dress coat, black pantaloons, black cravat and boots, together with such regalia as may from time to time be ordered; but this dress shall not be obligatory at the ordinary meetings of the Encampment.

EXPENDITURES AND ASSESSMENTS.

SECTION IV. No alteration of the regalia shall be made, no extra assessment laid, or vote taken for any public installation, procession or parade, except at meetings regularly called, with the business inserted in the notification for said meeting. The final vote shall be taken between the hours of eight and ten o'clock, P. M.

ARTICLE VIII.

GENERAL RULES.

SECTION I. The Encampment shall open precisely at the hour appointed, and shall be dismissed at or before ten o'clock, unless urgent business requires a later attendance.

SECTION II. The orders of the Grand Commander shall be implicitly obeyed. He shall be addressed by the Sir Knights standing, uncovered, and by the title of "Eminent Commander."

SECTION III. All debates shall be determined by the vote of a majority of the members present, unless otherwise specially ordered. The Grand Commander always having the casting vote.

SECTION IV. The members shall address each other, when on duty, by the title of "Sir Knight," and shall on all occasions observe the most kind and courteous behavior toward each other.

SECTION V. Should disputes unhappily arise among the members, it shall be the duty of the Grand Commander, upon application of the party aggrieved, or of any three of the members, to convene the Encampment; when a careful, patient, and impartial investigation of the cause of the complaint shall be made, and the decision thereupon of a majority of the Sir Knights present shall be conclusive.

ARTICLE IX.

ALTERATION OR REPEAL OF BYE-LAWS.

SECTION I. These Bye-Laws shall not be altered or repealed, unless they have been reported upon in writing at a previous meeting, by a committee chosen for that purpose, nor then without the consent of two-thirds of the members present. Such report must be made, and action thereon had, at some regular meeting of the Encampment, due notice thereof being given by the Recorder in the notification for said meeting. The Bye-Laws shall never be suspended except upon the unanimous vote of the members present.

T A B L E O F F E E S.

Every Candidate for the Orders, shall pay, on making application for the same, the sum of fifty dollars.

Every Candidate for membership, if knighted in this Encampment, shall pay a fee of twenty-five dollars; and all other Candidates, forty dollars. But Sir Knights who have already applied for membership, or are now (December 26, 1856) proposed for the Orders, shall be admitted under the old table of fees.

Each member (except honorary members, or those otherwise specially excepted) shall pay quarterages at the rate of five dollars per annum, semi-annually in advance.

The Recorder shall be allowed and paid, for each meeting he attends, five dollars.

The Sentinel shall be allowed and paid, for each meeting he notifies and attends, three dollars.

The Armorer shall be allowed and paid, for each meeting he attends, three dollars.

The Prelate, Treasurer, Recorder, and Armorer shall severally be exempt from quarterages.

For each Diploma, such sum shall be paid as the Encampment may from time to time determine.
